REPORT OF THE MANAGERS.

A NOTABLE change has been made in the management during the past year, by uniting the Board of Advisers with that of the managers. The presence of the gentlemen who have faithfully attended the meetings has given much encouragement, and sometimes the quick solution of a perplexing question has been the result of this wise alliance.

The deficit at the close of last year caused the managers much anxiety, until a generous friend sent us a check for the entire amount. We wish to express our grateful appreciation to our unknown benefactor in this public manner. Our society also received a share of the fund raised in this city for the unemployed. The parents of some of our children being out of work were unable to pay the usual board. This money enabled us to retain the children already under our care, and to extend aid to many others in urgent need. The same churches have clothed the same children as last year. The Employment Society has saved us much labor by sewing for the children, and this year they have done a greater amount of work than ever before.

A number of dentists in some of the country towns where the children are boarded have given their services freely. Our thanks are due for all these kindly favors.

The City and Memorial Hospitals have given their usual valuable aid. The Worcester Consolidated Street Railway Company has again given our General Secretary passes over their lines. With the increase of travel which each year brings, this means much more than appears upon the surface. We acknowledge our indebtedness for this liberal gift.

For three years the Memorial Home for the Blind has had free use of many of our rooms, but have paid their share of the cost of heating and lighting.

We sorrow to record the death of Mrs. Theo Brown whose name appears in the first list of managers fifty-eight years ago. Mrs. Brown was actively connected with nearly every charitable society in the city, and had worked and written many years of her life in behalf of the poor.

After nineteen years of faithful service as recording secretary, Miss Mary Brown has been obliged to resign on account of ill health. But we are confident of her enduring interest in the welfare of the society.

We regret that several of our managers for various reasons have felt obliged to resign. We welcome with cordial fellowship the new comers who take their places.

We have about eighty children under our care, and is it not our great opportunity to see that they have a fair chance in life's struggle? How fine the result of this chance may be we cannot fore-tell but is it not well to do our share toward making life worth while for them?

Respectfully submitted,

ABIGAIL BLAKE BARTON,

Secretary.

OBJECT AND METHOD.

The object, briefly stated, is to care for needy children. The work can be summed up under two heads; the Bureau of Information and Counsel and the Placing-out Department.

The Bureau of Information and Counsel receives all applications made to it, thoroughly investigates the situation and seeks to remove the cause of distress. It may give advice, or refer to some other Society or to the Placing-out Department; supervises in its own home or obtains work for the mother with her child.

The Placing-out Department removes the child from its home and places it preferably in the country to board, or free, and supervises it. An effort is made to re-establish the home as soon as possible.

Careful records are kept of every application and the children are supervised for a longer or shorter time after they return to their homes.

The responsibility is brought back upon the parents and relatives as much as possible. Adoption is only sought when the home cannot be re-established.

REPORT OF GENERAL SECRETARY.

BUREAU OF INFORMATION.

We have been asked repeatedly during the past year to board children that the mother might go out to service, as the father could not obtain work. This is never the policy of the Society, and our wits have been taxed to their utmost to keep the family together and obtain enough income to support it. Mothers in nervous condition, made so by this dread of debt, have come to us. The relatives have been unable to help as they too have often been out of work. It has been difficult to place boys on farms, either free or for wages, as men have filled the places for small wages. We have also found it much more difficult to place girls free or mothers with infants.

Out of the two hundred and seventy-eight children, whom we have been asked to aid this year, only fifty-five were referred to our Placing-out Department. A most careful investigation was made of each application, relatives interviewed, plans talked over with them until all pulled together to remedy the situation. A better family feeling has often been established and the children kept in their own homes or with relatives.

An important part of our work is to direct the applicant to the best source of assistance. It may be that some special school or hospital is the remedy of the situation. In determining this, our physician and specialist are of valuable assistance to us. Through our lawyer we were able to collect for a widow wages, which she had been unable to do. We further aided her in obtaining a good position where she could have her child with her.

During the year we have noticed a growing willingness of the young mother to go out to service with her child. In one instance after boarding the child a few weeks, the grandmother took it home.

PLACING OUT DEPARTMENT.

The same policy has been followed as before and which we have so often described. It has been our effort to eliminate the idea of charity or of an institution as much as possible. We are the child's friend, to whom he has a right to look for aid and sympathy. This relationship can hardly be established with promiscuous visiting or giving. The one who first takes the child to his country home is forever his friend and the one who visits him.

During the year, fifty-five new children have been placed out, making one hundred and thirty-five during the year. Fifty-two have been discharged so that we end the year with eighty-three placed out. In fifteen instances the home has been re-established, often through much patient struggle and perseverance on the part of the parent. We are proud of our parents and relatives for they have contributed one-half of the entire board of the children. We alone know of the careful planning and sacrifice this has involved on their part. But we also know that the inevitable result of this is steadfastness of purpose and character building on their part. In a few instances they have brought us small sums each week with which we have paid their back debts. Even though it be a year or two years before they are free from debt, the keen satisfaction of knowing they can look the world in the face repays them for the toil and sacrifice.

We have kept in touch, as far as possible, with the children who have been in our care but are no longer; at least once a year we hear from them. Of the fifty-eight who were discharged during 1906–'07, thirty-three are doing well, five fair, two poorly, four in institutions, five returned to our care, two dead.

Our standard of homes is high. Out of eighty-four applications we have investigated, only about one-half have been approved. The success of placing-out work is largely due to the constant, patient training of the country people who board our children. As we visit them we are more and more impressed with our debt of gratitude to them, and the child, often brought for the first time under this ennobling influence, quickly responds to it.

Respectfully submitted,

HELEN A. WOODS,

General Secretary.
